The Book of Daily Prayer

For Tau Tree of Life Interfaith Healing Community

Channelled to Brother Sean for the Therapists and Members of the Tau Community as well as for the general use of the students and Therapists of the Sean Bradley Academy.

Prayer can take many forms. For Christians and others, prayer often takes the form of conversation, contemplation or meditation, but can also be experienced through performing good works. All prayer is really a form of spiritual communication directed toward God. For prayer to be beneficial, we must understand that it has three parts. First, we must learn to speak to God in some manner or form. Next, we need to listen for God's response, realizing that God will choose the time and form of the response. Lastly, if we have truly listened to the whisperings of God's Holy Spirit, we must act or respond in some meaningful way to God's reply. The last two points are the ones we often fail to do. We all want God to listen to us, but we seldom take time to listen to what God might be telling us in return. Often times, if we have heard God's answer, we choose not to act upon it.

Our Book of Daily Prayer is one source you can use to help you to develop an ongoing conversational prayer with Jesus Christ. It is a compilation of Holy Scripture, various prayers, meditations and contemporary reflections that were used by Sean when he was an Alexian Nursing Monk and who continued to recite the Divine Office for over 40 years. This revised shortened version, known as the Light Worker's Way, was individually selected and organized into a daily prayer book by Sean under Divine guidance from Jesus. It is divided into Morning and Evening prayers for each day of the week, known as the Communions. We invite you to use our prayer book every day so as to participate in the spiritual, prayer life of the Tau Healing Community and the Universal Church as well as the Sean Bradley Academy.

While you are using our Book of Daily Prayer, engaging in the reflections, and praying the scriptural passages and reconnecting with the angelic energies and universal life force for each day, imagine that your “Little Brother” from Assisi is present with you. He smiles the smile of one who sees himself as the least of God’s creatures but who, in spite of it, feels completely enveloped by God’s love. He says to you, “Know God’s love for you and live the Gospels. Above all, may Jesus give you peace.”?

Ongoing spiritual preparation is vitally important for all who are in service as a Light Bringer of Divine Love and Peace. This can take the form of meeting regularly with like-minded persons who are willing to share and receive spiritual instruction as well as support. In the Tau Community, we already have the monthly Support Groups Days on the 1st Saturday of each month at Chapel Gap in the South Lakes. Here we have set aside a special time whereby members can meet up for spiritual sustenance, friendship as well as celebrating a precious gift imparted to us by Jesus and Magdalene in the anointing of each other’s feet. We know only too well that this gift given to us by Magdalene and Jesus was to empower us remain focussed, grounded and spiritually protected against all eventualities.

Spiritual development begins when we open our hearts to the promptings of the Holy Spirit who reawakens the Divine within us to receive all that is pure, wholesome and essential for our faith journey as the ‘Mystical Brides of Jesus,’ regardless of our sexuality. Many of us already know this to be true in a more profound way at soul level. Our love for Jesus resonates in all that we say and do as ambassadors of Divine Love who have committed to wearing the Tau symbol representing universal unification and peace within the whole family of God. Therapists who have graduated from the Sean Bradley Academy are invited on the anniversary of their graduation and attunement to the Christ energies each year to make a 2-day spiritual retreat. Many decide to return to their spiritual homeland by the Red Sea and connect with the ancient healing energies of this sacred historical landscape where Jesus lived. If at any time you feel inspired to continue with your spiritual formation as a child of God, there are additional courses in Spiritual Development for those members who would like to be a soul intuitive and support brothers and sisters make sense of ‘why they are here, etc. I am not here trying to persuade you to do further training only to share with you the need to keep abreast by ensuring that you are informed as so many times we here the tale, ‘if only you had told me so.’ When I graduated as a qualified nurse in 1975, I thought 'that is it with study'! Then I realised to my personal cost that training is ongoing and only ceases when we draw our last breath! Please feel free to check these out on the website at: www.sean-bradley.com be guided what you are instructed to do, not by your head/ego but from the promptings of Holy Spirit. You may be in for one fabulous surprise!

Living in a modern world where mankind has apparently lost their identity as co creators of Source, we have a special privilege bestowed upon us by Saint Francis, all of the Saints and Archangels to reach out to the marginalized in our society and 'touch lives' in the name of Jesus for God. Our first and most important duty as a Light Bringer of Divine Love and Peace is to remain in the world but not be of it! We have to be on our guard 24-7 against anyone or even anything that will seek to drain us of our energies or invite us unknowingly embrace their dramas or victimness. If we ignore the promptings from our heart, our Higher Self, to safeguard all that we have been taught by the Master Jesus, then we run the risk of losing our inner peace and believe me, 'many have gone on to lose their soul in the process of rescuing others.'

Ideally, it would be heaven sent to have a more secure foundation for our members to live, move and breathe in a more secure environment whereby others could join us as a loving family. We are confident that Jesus and Saint Francis already know of this and when the time is perfect, they will provide. Until such time arrives, we have a duty to care for our soul as well as for the needs of our new spiritual interfaith family. Remember the words of Jesus, 'Whatever you do for the least of my Brothers, you do unto me.' Jesus also said, 'Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am with them.' So, we now take heart dearest friends and despite the daily struggles that beset us all, we take heart as we know at soul level that we are never alone because we are surrounded by the ministrations from the Ascended Masters, especially Lord Kutumi, Saint Francis, Mother Mary, Magdalene, Saint John, the angelic realms, Mother Earth and not forgetting the Master Jesus who called each one of us in service to Him as His Spiritual Brides to be the managers of religious diversity and turn a negative into a positive healing energy through our interior spiritual life of daily prayer and service.

In my personal sharing with your hearts, temples already infused by the Love of Jesus, we take the words of the Master Jesus to our own heart when He says, 'I have called you by your name- YOU are mine.' He also said, 'Go in my name so that others may know that He lives.'

Be that beacon of hope so that our brothers and sisters in the world can see and reconnect with their God in you. We know only too well from reading Church history as well as listening to the many gripes levelled at God's religious family (Church) that many of God's representatives have in the past led others astray through their ego and their need to shackle God's people with oppressive teachings and negativism. Sadly, many religious men and women still continue to do so even today! Whilst religious Fundamentalism and world strife is on the increase, we must not lose sight of our sacred promise or that special grace that we have already received from the hands of the Master Jesus.

We may never see the fruits of our labours in our own lifetime! So, we take heart and trust the wisdom of the ancients, 'that if we only touch one soul,' then, in the words of my spiritual director, 'We have done the work of the Master Jesus.' Hold fast only to those teachings that will serve your highest good and the good of others. Let go of anything, anyone or anyplace that may try to 'crush the spirit of God' within you. This is your God given duty of care to YOU. If God does not ask you to jump through negativism and fear, then why should we give our permission to those whose agenda is to destroy the spirit of God within us? Be on your guard against attack from all sources.

Remember to check out your feelings and thoughts on a day to day basis, remembering that it may not be an 'Angel of Light' who has come to tease you but an Angel who opposes your sacred divine light! Too many therapists who say they work with the light fail miserably to discern the inner voices of the Holy Spirit. They would sooner rush to see a spiritual medium to tell them what their ego needs to hear rather than speak God's truth to their soul and honour their Sacred Contract. If you have read any of the lives of the Saints, then you will know that, not one of them was spared by God from all kinds of tests. The saints agreed to each test as part of their life lessons and spiritual growth for their ascension. It is necessary that we are tested otherwise we become complacent even indifferent in our attitudes and relationships with self, others and even God himself. The test is not about our penultimate destruction but a means to an end. The end justifies the means as without the tests or daily disappointments then we would never ever grow up as spiritual warriors in God's service. Being childlike is not being childish. Many light workers today confuse the two. You and I are called to be childlike and as a child of God, we come to our Holy Father Mother God in a spirit of acceptance, with hope in our hearts that our Heavenly Father Mother God will take care of us and meet all our needs. As we know only too well, many who keep on asking God for the same thing over and over reveal a real distrust of the self as well as of God. If we ask once from a heart filled with love, then it will be given to us when we are ready to appreciate the gift or request. Sadly, so many ask God to give them only their 'wants.' We are in a position as a special child of God to point out to them that Prayer to God will give them their actual needs. God invites us not to have two of anything! If so, then we are invited like St. Francis to share with others in need!

As a child of God, we as brothers and sisters of the Tau Interfaith Community, are all living saints! So, why not welcome the many opportunities that God will send us and use the tests as positive instruments for our spiritual advancement? God has set 'key indicators' for our personal verification that we are on track as light workers/light bringers of peace and love. So, let's enjoy them instead of being found out to be a real annoyance or distraction for others in ministry.

I remain your brother in service to Jesus and Saint Francis.
